To successfully complete this course the doctoral candidate must finalize their dissertation manuscript and successfully defend their findings.

Prerequisite Studies

Prerequisites: EDUC 640, EDUC 645, LDR 745, LDR 810, LDR 820 A, B, C and D, admission to candidacy, and appointment of a dissertation chair/mentor; Competency Exam, and Portfolio Defense.

Diversity in the Oakland City University School of Education

The School of Education is committed to a core set of values that are reflected in a culture that promotes development of personal and professional integrity and engagement for the benefit of our society. As an academic community, the faculty and staff of the School of Education values:

- Diversity in all of its manifestations
- Respect for the individual and deviating perspectives that challenge us
- Collaboration
- Creativity in thought and action

To further the mission of diversity in the School of Education, SOE has a primary goal that:

Encourages and supports an environment which presents and values diversity defined in accordance with NCATE Professional Standard 4 as differences among groups of people and individuals based on ethnicity, race, socioeconomic status, gender, exceptionalities, language, religion, sexual orientation, and geographic area.

Course Objectives

LDR 820E will include the overall completion of the dissertation manuscript, including appropriate frontage pages, bibliography, tables, graphs, and other resources cited properly in APA format. An oral defense will be done as the culminating experience of the dissertation study.

Instructional Design

Students will explore Defense of Dissertation at the direction of the Dissertation Chairperson and Committee.

Required Course Materials

The following resources are required in the completion of course learning activities.

Textbooks

American Psychological Association. (2009). 6th edition. Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. Washington DC: Author. ISBN 9781433805615

Glatthorn, Allan A. (2012). 3rd Edition. Writing the Winning Dissertation.-A Step by Step Guide. Thousand Oaks, CA: Corwin Press. ISBN 9781452258782

Gay, L.R., Mills, G.E, & Airasian, Peter. (2011). Educational Research. 10th edition. Pearson. ISBN 9780132613170

Course Policies

The following policies apply to anyone participating in this course.

- Academic Honesty – Students are expected to respect and uphold accepted standards of honesty in writing examinations or submitting written work to instructors. Plagiarism, though occurring in many forms, in essence involves the presentation of another person’s work as if it were the work of the presenter. The results of research must be properly documented, and quoted material must be so designated. Students guilty of plagiarism or cheating may be suspended from the course and receive a failing grade.
- Accommodations for Students with Special Needs – Oakland City University actively supports the Americans with Disabilities Act which protects qualified individuals with disabilities from discrimination. Oakland City University will work with students and other associates to provide reasonable accommodations as provided in the Act. If a student or another associate believes he/she needs accommodations for class, he/she should contact Karen Nasserri, the 504 coordinator at 812-749-1483 or by email: knasserri@oak.edu. Her office is located in the Kennedy Center, room 203. If unavailable, Academic Affairs can be reached at (812) 749-1238. All other accommodations, please contact Student Life at (812) 749-1421.
- Bad Weather Policy – Oakland City University uses the Nixle Emergency Notification System to contact staff, students, and members of the community about upcoming events, class cancelations due to severe weather, and on-campus emergencies. Students are encouraged to register for Nixle (www.nixle.com) to receive e-mail notifications about campus emergencies. The latest alerts also can be followed on Twitter at @OaklandCityU). Students may also check the following radio stations: WBIW-13.40 AM, WQRK-105.5 FM, or WPHZ-102.5 FM.
- Document Formatting – Assignments must be formatted according to the current edition of the style manual used in the program of study. Basic formatting protocols that should be followed include:
 - * Use correct spelling and grammar.
 - * Some assignments require a specific form or format—use as directed.
 - * Font size should be 12 point utilizing one of the following fonts: Arial, Calibri (body text), Georgia, or Times New Roman or equivalent.
 - * Do not use report covers or notebooks unless directed to do so—staple or binder clip assignment pages together as necessary or as required when submitted hardcopy.

- * Use your name, course number, and assignment name as the file name of a document when submitted electronically.
- * Be sure to include your name, course number, and contact information in your document as required by formatting guidelines (e.g., on the title page or at the end of the document) or as directed by the instructor.
- Respect for Divergent Viewpoints – Students and faculty are to show appropriate respect for each other even when divergent viewpoints are expressed in the classroom. Such respect does not require agreement with or acceptance of divergent viewpoints.
- Standards for Student Behavior – As a denomination- affiliated university, the policies and guidelines of Oakland City University mandate student behavior to be consistent with Christian principles. Some behavior that is acceptable by the general public may not be acceptable on the Oakland City University campus.

Students at Oakland City University are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate adult manner on and off campus and to conform to standards of propriety at all times. They should act with consideration for the rights of other students and for the reputation of the school and the community.

Inappropriate actions or activities occurring on or off-campus which may reflect upon the integrity or character of Oakland City University will be addressed based on the guidelines and policies of disciplinary action found in this handbook. The University reserves the right to dismiss a student whose conduct is detrimental to the general welfare of the school or community.

For a further explanation concerning the Christian principles which Oakland City University follows as well as the General Baptist Concepts of Morality, a copy of the General Baptist Social Principles Handbook may be obtained through the University Bookstore, or you may ask for the desk copy from any Resident Hall Director, Resident Assistant, or the Office for Campus Life.

- Use of Inclusive Language – Students are expected to use non-sexist inclusive language as appropriate in the completion of course assignments and participation in classroom discussions. The use of male gender terms to describe individuals, groups, titles, or roles that can include the female gender should be rewritten to more accurately reflect that both genders are being addressed. In cases where only one gender is clearly intended, language should be used that reflects that gender.

The purpose of the Conceptual Framework (CF) as it relates to graduate studies in the School of Education (SOE) is to provide a foundation and organizational system through which candidates accomplish the primary objective of the program.

This objective is to advance the knowledge, skills, and disposition of those serving in leadership positions in the educational and business communities.

The OCU School of Education promotes development of effective educators who master knowledge, skills, and dispositions which enable servant leaders to positively impact the next generation of learners. The learning outcomes that flow out of the primary objective are to develop a student that:

- has advanced skills in one's specialized content area(s) and has the knowledge of and uses the tools of inquiry as part of the on-going educational process while demonstrating ethical leadership in creating positive working or learning environments for employers and students;
- has advanced knowledge of human development and uses the information to support the advancement of humankind's intellectual, social, and personal development within a business or educational community environment;
- has an in-depth understanding of diversity issues in life and their inherent value;
- models a variety of current leadership skills that assist employees/students to become critical thinkers and analytical problem solvers;
- guides, facilitates, and supports the success of all learners by providing leadership in curriculum development learning assessment, instructional supervision, and program evaluation conducive to student learning, personnel professional growth, and district and organizational accountability;
- uses collaboration within a positive organizational or learning environment with his or her employees, students, and work community;
- effectively uses a variety of communication techniques that foster inquiry and collaboration within the work environment;
- develops a leadership style that incorporates technological delivery systems with colleagues that enhance business and educational communication and community support;
- reflects on his or her leadership techniques and styles and experiences and adapts them to meet business, education, or community needs as he or she flourishes professionally through active participation in professional organizations, community organizations, and community service activities; and

- serves the community and assists as a community resource person in the community in which he or she is employed.
